Tips for contacting Lawmakers

General tips:

Make sure you understand the legislative process. Even the most basic understanding will help you effectively express your ideas.

Use a variety of communication methods. You might choose to telephone, write, e-mail, fax or visit your legislator.

Tell your legislator what effect you think a particular bill, if it becomes a law, will have on you, your children, business or community. Be concise, but specific.

Be polite, even if you disagree strongly with the legislator you are addressing. Lawmakers cannot please everyone. Your communication will be more effective if you are reasonable in your approach.

Suggest a course of action and offer assistance. Don't make promises or threats.

Writing effective letters:

Address letters to members of the House of Representatives as follows:

The Honorable John Doe
Florida House of Representatives
(for address information see following pages)

Address letters to senators as follows:

Senator Jane Doe
(for address information see following pages)

Be absolutely certain you spell the legislator's name correctly and use the correct address. If you don't, you could lose your audience.

Type or print legibly. Sign your name neatly and give your address correctly so they can respond to your letter.

Keep letters, e-mail and faxes brief. Never write more than one page. Concise written correspondence is more likely to grab and keep the reader's attention. Identify your issue or opinion at the beginning of the letter. Cover only one issue per letter. Back up your opinions with supporting facts. Your letter should inform the reader.

Don't send the letter to more than one legislator.

What is the United Arts Council?

We are designated by the State of Florida as the official Local Arts Agency for Collier County.

We provide arts education to at-risk students and outreach services to those who might not otherwise have access to the arts.

We connect arts organizations, artists, galleries and arts educators with one another, with local audiences, and with tourism-related businesses.

We provide arts information to the public, and publish a comprehensive cultural calendar, printed and online at www.collierarts.com.

We provide services to arts organizations, galleries and artists.

We advocate for more arts education in our schools, more funding for the arts, and more art in public places.
